A Message From The Editors

Nik Conrad
Managing Editor ~ 2014

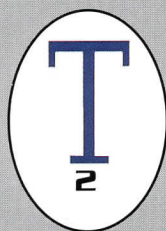

Seniors, another year has passed and your time has come to leave the halls of Telstar High School and start a new chapter in your lives. With that comes new opportunities and new challenges. We hope you will remember the people who have influenced you throughout these years. Feel a sense of pride in all you have accomplished here at Telstar. Don't forget to take the time to thank the people who have helped and encouraged you during this time, which has flown by. For those of us you leave behind, you've made many memories that shall be cherished forever. There's a lot out there beyond this small town of Bethel, Maine. But no matter what road you choose, remember to believe in yourself and know that you can accomplish great things if you just follow your dreams.

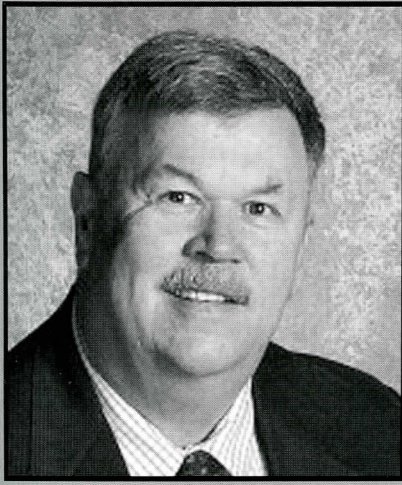

Underclassmen, your time will shortly come to an end, as it has for these seniors of 2013, so enjoy the rest of your high school career. You are all unique, talented individuals who can make anything possible for yourself if you just have faith. Set your heart to it and have an open mind. Value the relationships that you not only share with your classmates, but your teachers and the ones who have inspired and given you that extra push throughout the years. Thank you all for filling this yearbook with so much life and many memories that will last a lifetime.

The Zodiac yearbook staff would like to take the time to thank all the community businesses for purchasing an advertisement and making this 2013 Telstar Zodiac yearbook possible. We tried to make this edition of the yearbook the best it could be.

"Life is too short to be anything but happy. Love deeply, forgive quickly, take chances, give everything with no regrets and forget the past. With exception of what you have learned and remember, everything happens for a reason."

The Superintendent's Message

Dear Telstar Students,

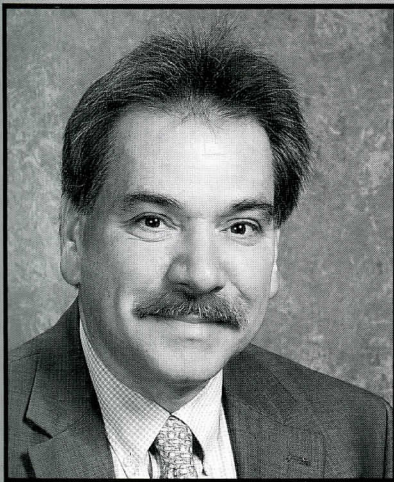

Some day, many years from now, you may find yourself sitting down with old friends or your own children and leafing through the pages of this Zodiac yearbook. When you do, I hope you will be able to look back fondly on many positive and enjoyable experiences that you had during your years at Telstar and remember the teachers who helped prepare you for the experiences you encountered beyond high school.

It is often said that your high school years are the best years of your life. During this time, you have developed friendships and established expectations for yourself that can last throughout your lifetime. You have had the benefit of attending a small high school. This has enabled you to get to know most of your peers and many of your teachers in ways that are often impossible in larger schools. As a result, you have been able to develop relationships that are deeper and more meaningful than many students. This type of connection is rare. If you are an underclassman, I would urge you to build on these relationships and recognize the tremendous value associated with forming them.

To our graduating seniors, thank you for all of your efforts during your time in our school district. Whether you are heading into the world of work, enrolling in college or serving our country in a branch of military service, I wish you continued success and a long, happy and prosperous life!

Best wishes.

Superintendent of Schools

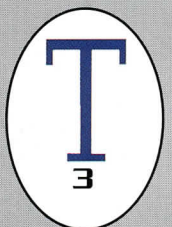

A Message from the Principal

On behalf of the SAD 44 Community and Telstar High School Staff and Faculty, I wish to congratulate the Class of 2013 for a job well done.

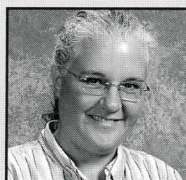

"Happy are those who dream dreams and are willing to pay the price to make them come true." The past four years have provided you many opportunities to make plans and prepare for the future. You have had the chance to dream of what you want to do. Now it's graduation time - are you willing to pay the price to carry out your plans and make your dreams come true? Yes, I believe many of you can carry out your plans and make your dreams come true. I wish you much success in every effort with your academic, social and career goals and plans. To those of you who have not yet determined a course of action to follow, it is late, but not too late or impossible if you are willing to make a commitment and pay the price to make your dreams come true. Always remember as you enter into this very competitive world that one's education never stops and is lifelong. We look forward to your return visits and sharing your successes and, yes, your failures and what you learned from them. We will miss you.

First off I'd like to thank my family and friends for being there for me these past four years. We've had some good times. Tetris with Bill in Social Studies lab, crafting in honors study hall, SLC and the Suburban. I'm goanna miss you guys next year. Good luck Class of 2013!

"Energy and persistence conquer all things"
~ Benjamin Franklin

Thank you, Dad, for believing in me and also teaching me to believe in myself. Without your support, I wouldn't be where I am today. It's been rough these past six years, but it has made our bond stronger. Thank you so much for everything you've done for me. It's truly appreciated. Thank you, Kendra, for being the best big sister anyone could have; your love and support means more to me than you will ever know. Thank you to Bri and Rachel, my best friends. The past four years of high school has had its ups and downs, but you two have helped me through the downs and have been there to laugh at the ups; and for that I love you with all heart. Thank you to Jared for making the past few years enjoyable, you mean the world to me. To the Class of 2013: I wish you luck and happiness in all your future endeavors.

Its actually hard to believe that I'm finally graduating! I'm very excited to start this new chapter in my life and experience what lies ahead from this point on. I couldn't do it without the support of my good friends and family to be there with me to experience the good times and the rough times. Congratulations Class of 2013.

Best wishes, Seniors!

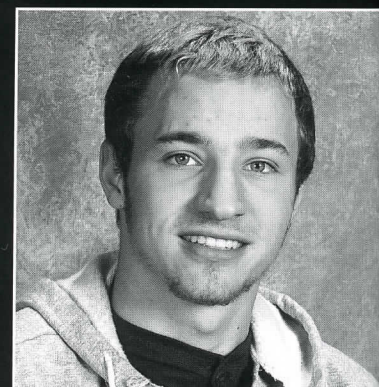

Brandon Behan

Holden Bean

I guess prob'ly I'd like to thank my friends and family for all the support they have given me over the years. Have fun Class of 2013.

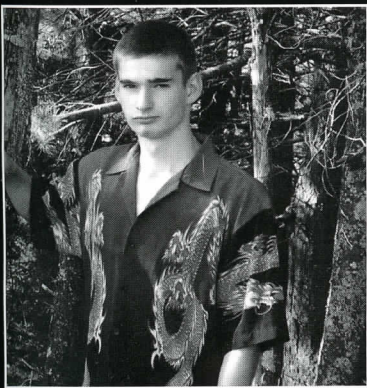

I would like to thank John Eliot for pushing me into working hard, and for all he has done for me. I would like to thank David Hanson for being there to help me work on my coffee table and help me on such short notice, and get me through the rest of my classes. Definitely thank you Tim O'Connor for keeping me on track with school, also for being there for me when needed. I would like to thank my Dad and my new Mother for keeping me in line and on track. I also would like to thank Valerie Forman for helping me and supporting me when I needed it the most, and my Brother Scotty helped a lot, too. Lastly, my Sister Hannah.

SENIORS

Henry Brooks

Thanks to all who helped.

Senior year, it seems so surreal to think that we have made it this far. It feels like just yesterday that I was that little timid Freshmen that didn't know where to go or what to do in the shark tank that is high school. Even though I just joined you all last year, I feel like I have known some of you my whole life. I want to thank each and every one of you because whether I like, or dislike you, you have helped me become the person I am today. So Seniors, live in the moment because every second you spend angry or upset, is a second of happiness you can never get back. Live freely, take too many pictures and never forget the memories we have made. It's our time now! Congrats to the Senior Class of 2013; we did it. (:

Haley Casco

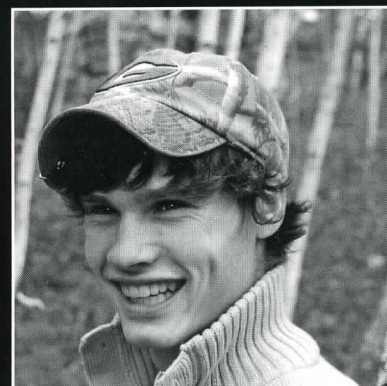

Althea-Jean Cary

I would just like to take a moment to thank everyone who helped me get through all the hard times I had. I also thank you for dealing with me when my temper got the best of me. I know I'm not always the easiest person to work with. To my special ED teachers, I owe you the most thanks, I never would have made it here without you. To all you upcoming seniors and/or high schoolers:

All I can say is "don't blink." It will pass faster then you think.

My time here flew by, wish I could start over! But I'm glad I'm done with school now. I want to thank my girlfriend, Autum Morin, for helping me out for three of four years here at Telstar. Good luck to all my friends stay alive longer than me!!

Hunter Chase

Jessica Casey

I just want to thank everyone who has helped me through these hard years, especially my family and my friends, and, of course, the girls at the Ranch. Most importantly, I want to thank my horse Red, for always being there for me no matter what, listening to me when I needed it, and just in general making my world a better place.

I'd like to thank all my friends, family, and teachers for helping me throughout the past four years of my high school career. They have been tough on me but it was only to help me. And I love them all so much! Throughout your four years of high school you become a different person and you lose friends but you also make some new ones. The best thing to do is to stay on track with everything and make the best memories or your life, memories you will never forget, because if you don't while your in high school you will eventually look back and wish you did. Good Luck, Class of 2013, and Good Luck future graduates.

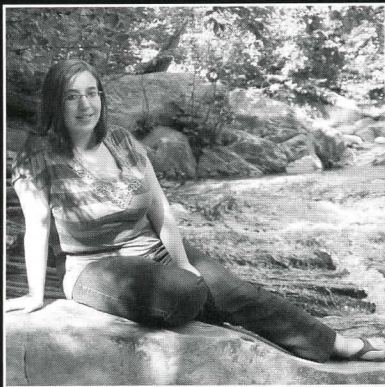

I would like to thank my friends and family for making high school the best years of my life so far. Special thanks to Mom, I could not have done it without you. Golf team, suburban adventures, baseball, eating sandwiches, crafting in ss lab, all stars. Good luck to all my classmates!

These last four years have been a lot of fun. I have shared many great memories with all my friends, throughout drama, band, FBLA, and all other classes and activities. I'd like to thank all my teachers, but I'd like to thank Mrs. Bennett most of all. You have pushed me to be better than my best. I hope to go out and pursue all my dreams, whatever they be. Good Luck in the future, Class of 2013.

I'd like to thank my Mom for always loving and supporting me. My Dad for the knowledge and guidance he's given me over the years. Also my brother, Frankie; he has always been there for me through the toughest times and was the only one I could go to for anything. I love you guys.

Good luck, Class of 2013!

WE DID IT! We finally made it! As the "worst class to go through the system" it probably won't come as any surprise that the teachers will be excited to see us go as we are! But in all seriousness, it is unreal how quickly our high school career has flown by. It seems like just yesterday we were all fighting over the best place to sit in the library. Now we are all getting ready to go on to bigger and better things, and I mean it when I say that I hope you are all successful in whatever you decide to do. I will never forget the bench, Lorraine, and Honey Boo Boo! RM, TS, BS, HH, HC. We had some great times!!!

Class of 2013, we've successfully accomplished 4 years of our high school experience. All the hard work, struggles and the challenges have finally paid off. I want to personally thank my family Tammy, Bill and Billy Hinckley, because without their support and pushing me toward not giving up on myself, I wouldn't be where I am now. Also to Rickie Osgood, you've also helped me with so much and pushed me to finish my last year, even when we had a lot going on, with my pregnancy and looking forward to our newborn baby. Also, thanks to all the teachers for giving us the knowledge we needed to know to go further on. I have so much to look forward to and so many more challenges and opportunities to take on. Good luck 2013, wish you all the best of luck. "The moment you stop accepting challenges is the moment you stop moving forward."

I would like to thank my family for always being there for me. I couldn't have made it without you. Thank you to some great teachers at Telstar and Region 9 for always being there when you need them. To longtime friends and friendships that I hope will last forever... Hunter, Buddy, Cole & Colton... Lots of great memories over the years. Hunting, fishing, hanging out, and Senior year Golf Trip. No matter where we end up or what we do, I wish you guys great success. Congratulations and Good Luck Class of 2013!!

I would like to thank everybody in my family. The ones I love dearly and the ones I don't like so much, too. You guys made me who I am: The girl who doesn't take nothin' from no one, and will get where she wants to be, no matter what it takes. My brother Josh, you are the person I look up to and I couldn't ask for a better brother. Love you bro. My friends, Kurt, Destiny, Courtney and Jacki, I love you guys. Class of 2013, you guys are crazy but that's a good thing. It's been a long ride for me and yes: I'm glad it's over, it's time for a new chapter in my life, but I will never forget the years I've spent with you guys.

First things first, thank you to my whole family. You guys gave me everything I ever needed, and I love you for that. Kevin, Cole, Ty, Nik, I really couldn't ask for a better group of friends. Daniel and Elek, you guys were like older brothers to me, and it would be impossible for me to explain how much I appreciate everything you did for me. I won't list anyone else because there's way too many names, but I'm seriously going to miss you underclassmen. I'll never forget Social Studies lab, suburban trips, honors study hall, Ms. Poston's room for lunch, FBLA, SLC, soccer team trips, tetris, All-Stars, and the Senior Lounge. Good luck to everyone, it's been a good thirteen years.

Well, I got a pretty good story to tell and I'm still alive to tell you so that's good. I want to thank my parents for helping me through everything, and being the best parents I could ask for. Didn't realize how good my sister was, but I could never ask for a better friend, and I wanna thank Nick for being so damn cute.

I just want to take a minute to thank those teachers, and my parents, who got me to where I am today. It is because of Mrs. Kate Slattery that I have decided to go to school for teaching. What was once a way to simply fulfill my community service requirements has now become my chosen career path. For me, it hasn't been a walk in the park these past four years in high school, but it was definitely a learning experience. Looking back as a wiser person now, I don't regret anything. The bad choices I may have made in the past have taught me so much. To the Class of 2013: all the very best in the years to come, and may all of your biggest, and wildest, dreams come true.

I am an exchange student from Thailand who decided to come to the United States to have a good experience about culture, food, and especially language. I have grown so much since I got here. I have learned how to be strong and patient. I am not a princess at home anymore. Life is tougher than I thought it would be, to be away from home and everything that I'm familiar with. However, I am glad that I am here now. My English skills have improved a lot from 0 to 10. I can communicate with people, which is so cool! Thank you to my parents, who always supported me with everything and my host family for a really warm home and love. I love you guys so much. P.S. I love snow + skiing.

I want to thank everyone on the football team, all the coaches, players, managers, and football boosters for making my last year awesome and including my three previous football years. I want to thank the track & field players and the coaches for an awesome year and previous years. I think I became better at those sports but also a better person. I want to thank my parents for pushing me as well, but I want to specially thank the person that went through the hard times but we always had the best times. Haley Alexis Theriault, you're the best person I have ever met. I don't think I would have made it through the last two years of school without you. I can't thank you enough, I don't know what to say but I love you.

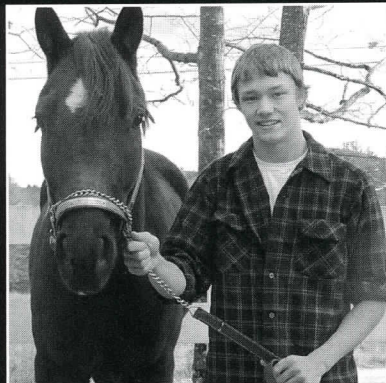

People always said that their Senior Year was their best year of High School, but I thought differently. I thought my last year of high school was going to be boring because most of my friends graduated last year and the ones that I planned on spending Senior Year with decided to graduate early, but when school started I couldn't have been more wrong. I would like to thank my friends, you know who you are, we have all been through so much over the years and I am sad that it is all coming to an end. I would especially like to thank Ms. Poston, who has been there for me since the beginning. To the Class of 2013, I want to say congratulations - we finally made it. Graduation is bittersweet, but I want to wish everyone the best in whatever you decide to do.

Four years have gone by so fast. How do I reflect on a high school career like mine? It all started in Ms. Poston's English class the first day of school I got moved out of my seat for talking. Man, what was I getting myself into with this whole high school thing? Things have changed a lot since that first day. I have been molded into a man that I can be proud of, and most of the credit goes to all the teachers who helped me develop into who I am today. People I would like to recognize are Lucas Bellanceau: you are my best friend. Jessica Dirago: What can I say about you? You were the biggest part of my life in high school. You helped me through so much. I will never forget you because so many memories fill my heart and there will always be the most special place in there for you.

Four years have gone by so fast. I want to thank my Mom, Chris and Grandparents for everything they have done for me. Gramp, you have been like a father to me, and I really enjoyed and appreciated all the times we spent together and the lessons that I have learned. I love you! Tim and Brad, thanks for keeping football fun. Jim, thank you for everything you've done for me in football and in life. Zack, David, Andrew, Emily, Ethan, Carson, and Skye, you seven are the best siblings anyone could ask for: I love all of you!

Congrats Class of 2013. We made it! I never thought that the feeling of graduating would be so one of a kind and so special. It's about time we all made something of ourselves and went out into that little thing called life. I'll always remember the way it felt hanging out with friends after school everyone wanting to do something and no one ever knowing what exactly to do. Thanks Class of 2013. I love all of you. For all the teachers still here at Telstar, I wish to you the best of luck and I want you all to know I appreciate everything that was done for me. Wow Guys, we did it! To my mother and grandmother, you are both my inspiration. You both taught me soooo many things, and made me the person I am. I couldn't have done it without you guys. You have been right there for me since the beginning of sophomore year, and I could not have imagined doing this without you, I love you! <3 Chantel Tedford, you are my best friend, and I really want to thank you for always being there for me. High school would have been really tough without you. Love you, Nugget! :) Looking back it's one big blur, but it felt like this year would never come. I am so proud of all my classmates and I'm going to miss everyone soo much! It's time for us to all go our separate ways, and I wish all of you the best of luck!

Hunting and fishing have had a huge influence on my high school career. The friends that I have made since I was young have shared these same passions; even though some of them have stopped their pursuit for the outdoors, the outdoors will always be instilled in their morals and characteristics. I would like to thank my Mom for being so supportive and loving, and my Dad for passing the tradition of whitetail deer hunting to me and teaching me how to be both smart and safe in the woods. I would like to thank my best friend, Bryce Walker, for always being there for sharing some amazing experiences, both in the outdoors and just hanging out. Jessie, the last year has been amazing and I hope we have many more great years to come. Thanks to everyone that has helped me along the way...

Community Service

Community Service is about getting together with people throughout our community and volunteering time to help others. THS students must have 60 community service hours to graduate. Community Service is a wonderful way to get involved with our neighbors and have fun doing something we like, without getting anything in return.

This bulletin board, located on the first floor of THS, tells students how many total hours they have completed on their service hours since they started high school.

Every November for more than two decades, members of the Telstar National Honor Society have been sponsoring a Thanksgiving meal for two hundred senior citizens of SAD #44. Along with members of FBLA, NHS students transform the high school cafeteria into a restaurant and then serve a full turkey dinner to the guests. The food is donated by district staff members and students. Door prizes are donated by area businesses, members of the district staff, and students.

Homecoming

Homecoming: It is a week filled with fun activities that bring the school together, not only by classes but as a whole unit. There are student activities during the school day, as well as those for the entire community. Whether it's attending a sports game or watching the bonfire in the green across from the bank, homecoming week is an exciting time at Telstar High School. There is a sense of finding your home within your community.

Region 9

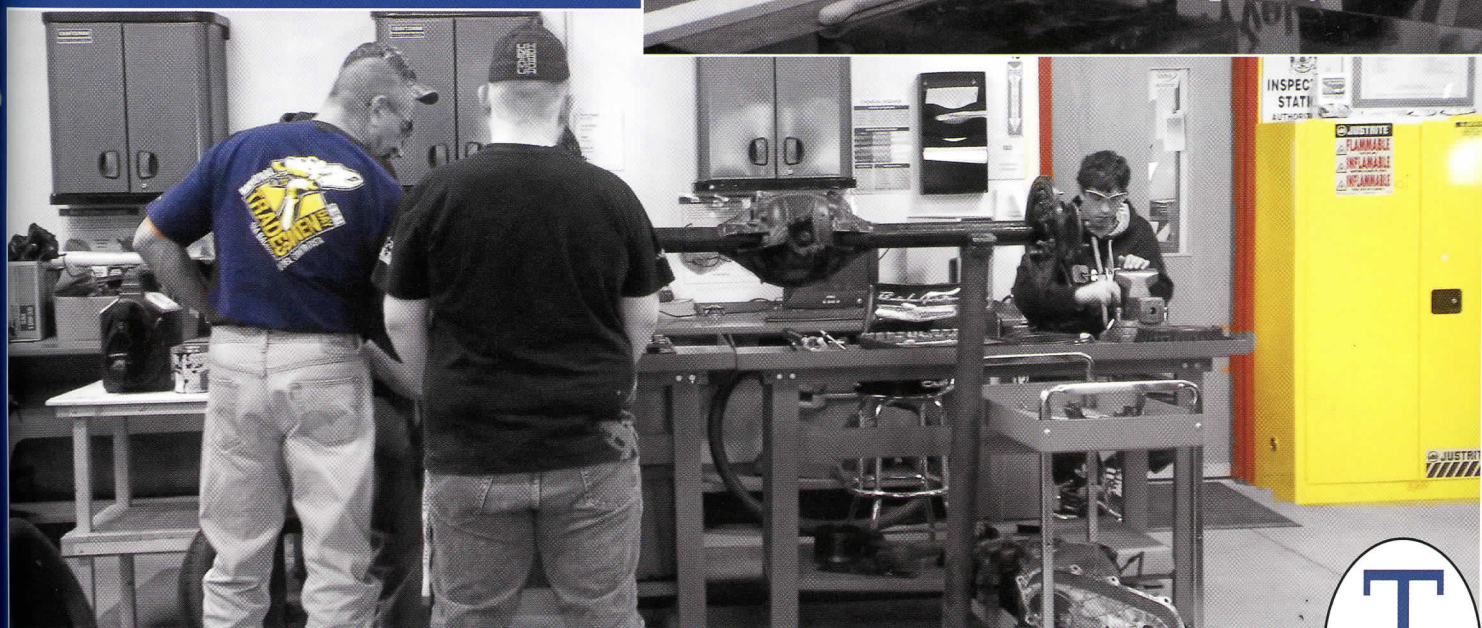

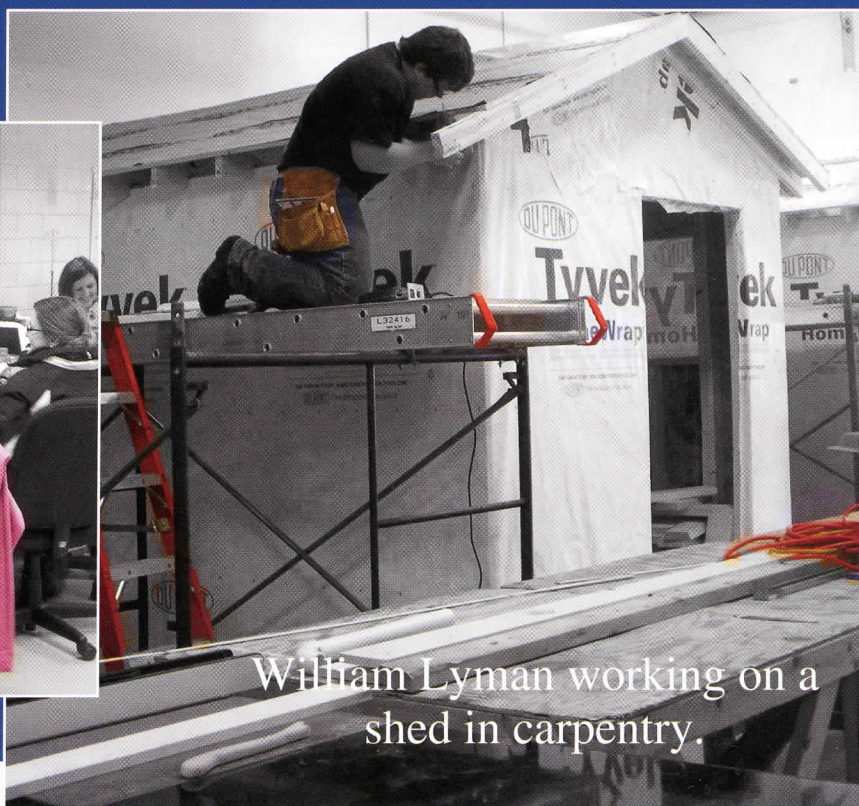

Region 9 offers its programs to Telstar High School students, as well as students from Mountain Valley and Dirigo High Schools.

Sometimes you have to do book work before you can get to the hands-on things.

Jerry Pelletier, the automotive instructor, shows students how to take brakes apart and put them back together again.

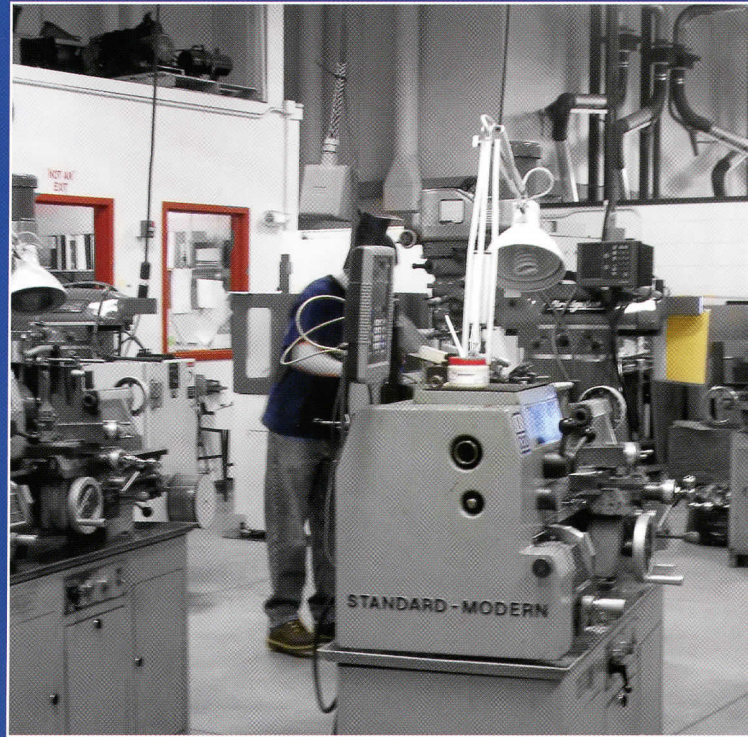

Region 9 School of Applied Technology offers several unique classes to students.

- Metal Trades
- Forestry/Wood Harvesting
- Fire Science
- Computer Technology
- Building Construction
- CNA
(Certified Nursing Assistant)
- Commercial Drivers License

Region 9

The motto at Region 9 is:
"We believe the best way to learn is by doing!"

At Region 9 programs are not offered directly at the Telstar High School facility. Students at Region 9 have several career paths from which to choose.

A.J. Cary

A.J., I just want you to know how proud of you I am. I know I don't often say it enough (not to you directly anyway), I am though. I love you unconditionally and I'm pleased with the caring, understanding, creative and independent young woman you're becoming. Hang in there, this is just the beginning. But I think you can accomplish any goal you set your mind to, you just have to set your mind to it.

~ Mom

James Heath

Looks like you did it Addison!! I'm so proud of you and all the work you've put into this. You have shown that you can do anything as long as you want it bad enough. You've shown maturity and responsibility. The right attitude toward life will lead you in the right direction. You have the rest of your life ahead of you -- make the best of it!! I'm so proud and I love you so much!

~ Dad

Holden Bean

Holden Bean, I am so very proud to be able to call myself

"Holden's Mom." You have grown to be a responsible, hard working, loving young man. Life has handed you some devastating losses and you showed your strength when you continued down the right path, the path Jordan would have picked for you. My wish for you is success in whatever it is you choose to do in life; and when you fall, know I will be there to help you up. Always. I love you!

~ Mom

Felicia Curtis

Felicia Curtis,

You have grown into such a great young lady; we hope you excel in all your future endeavors. Don't let anyone keep you from moving forward, just tell them you're trying to learn and to give you some room. :) Like that day with your Jeep. lol. Hold onto your dreams; we're very proud of you!

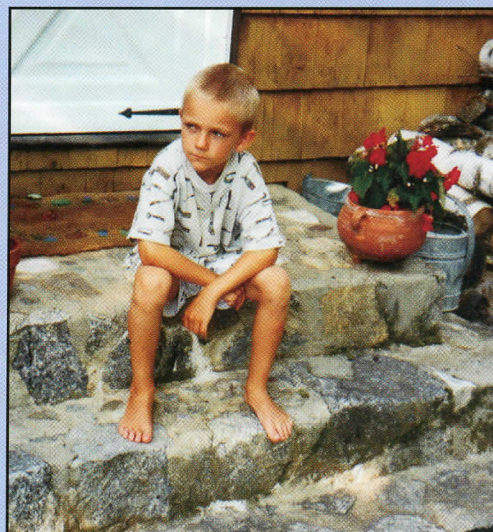

*Love, Dad, Angie, Grandpa and Gram,
Curtis and Family*

Tyler James

OK, TY, you are done with your time out, and can move to NYC to make movies!

*All of our love,
Mom, Dad, Linds, Oma and Nike*

Colton Davis

Colton R. Davis ~

I am proud of your achievements but am more proud of the person you have become. As you enter the next phase of life's journey, know that life is mostly about the choices that you make. Those choices matter. Beware of the fork in the road, because the path you choose becomes your destiny. It's up to you, the path you follow. Remember the lessons you have learned. Sooner than you think, you will be looking back at the roads traveled and choices that have marked your life.

Don't be afraid to take risks. There will be times in your life when all your instincts will tell you to do something, something that defies logic, upset your plans, and may seem crazy to others. When that happens, listen to and trust your instincts. Believe in yourself, believe that you can. Dare to be different, dream big, work hard. Learn something new every day. Be grateful for all your blessings, show compassion and generosity to others. Be kind and respectful to those around you. Seek truth in your relationships. Do not buy or sell your character. Most importantly, stay true to yourself.

I love you, Mom
